CHAPTER 05

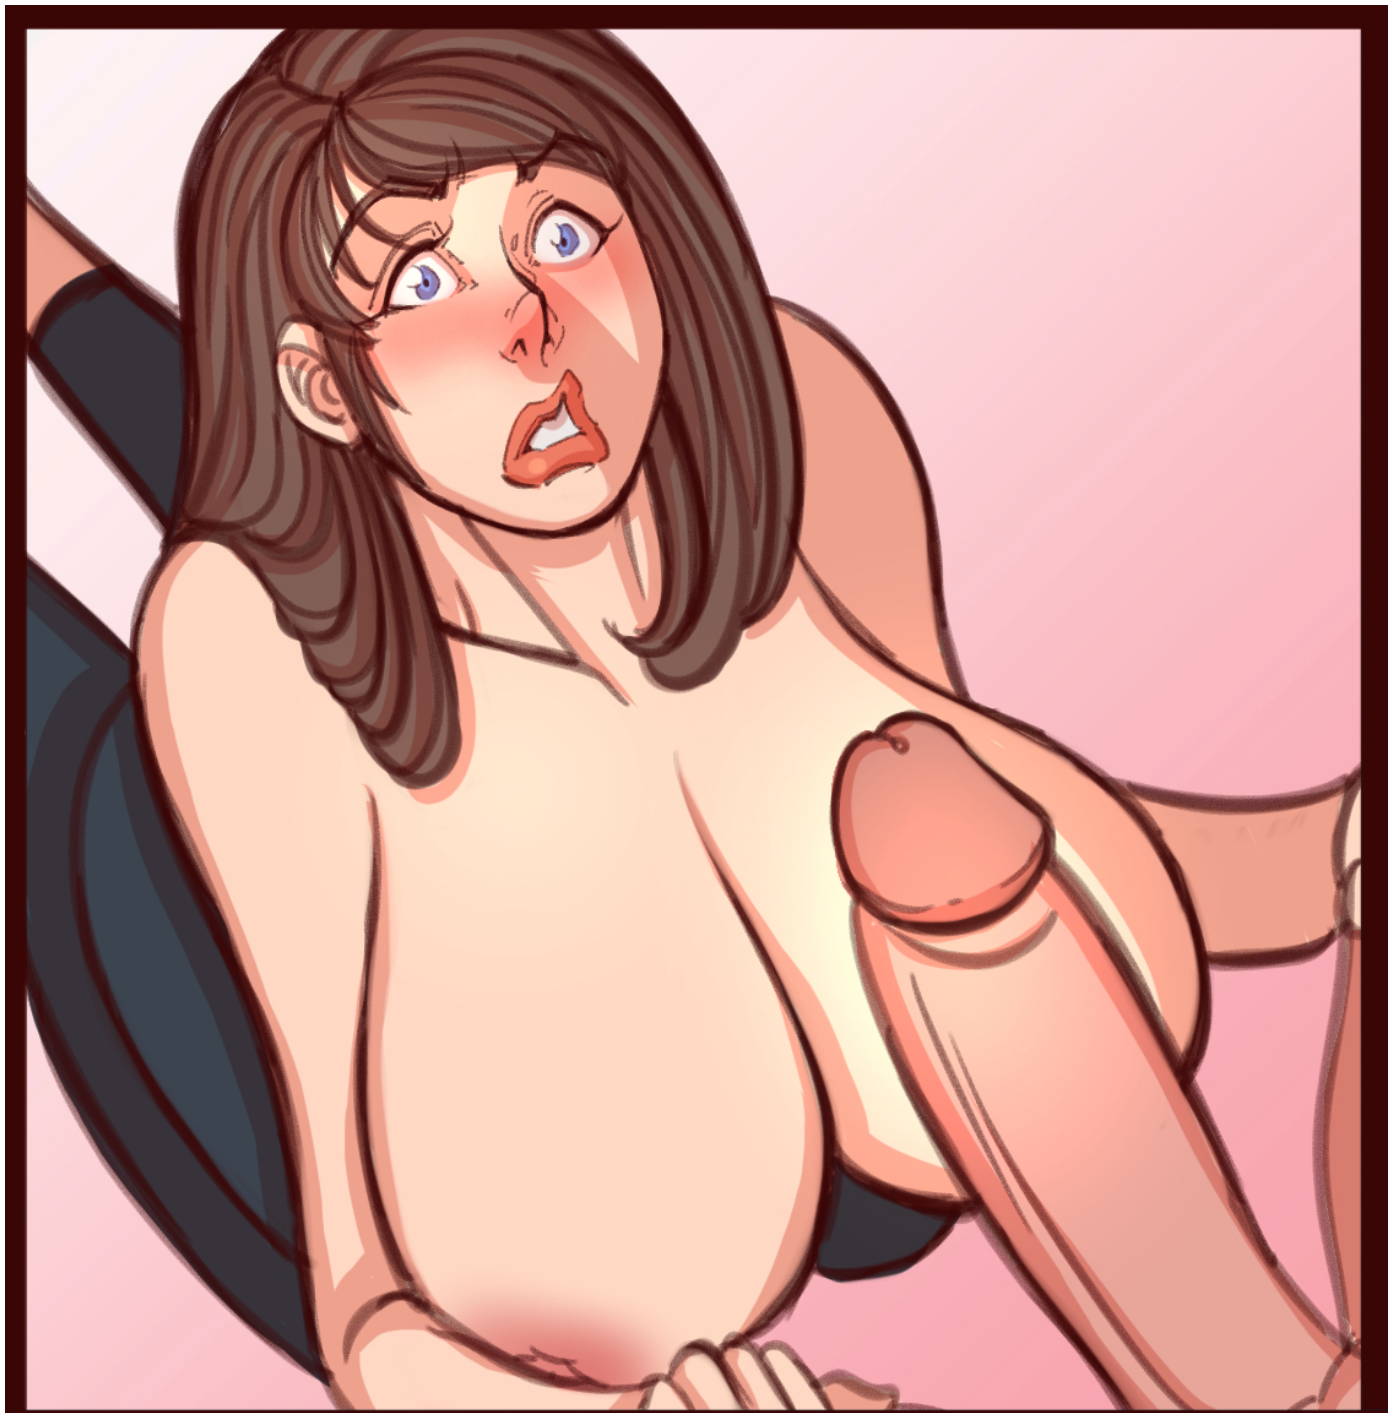

"Do you think we could...
you know...
have sex?"

"I mean, isn't that the best way to prove that my penis and reproductive organs are working properly? We need to know if my penis can still handle a woman. Isn't that the point of this whole thing?"

Laura was stunned by the request. Absolutely stunned. The audacity that Ben had, she thought. Yet, Ben did have a point. Laura had been pushing this all day. She was adamant that his health needed to be monitored, and she was persistent in checking that his sexual organs were fully functional.

"You're too smart for your own good," she said bluntly.

That was when she released his cock
from her hands and stood up.

Ben had a sadness
in his eyes,
figuring that he had just ruined
this amazing feeling of sexual pleasure.

Instead, Laura pulled her bottoms down, removing her pants and panties, standing completely naked.

Ben's jaw dropped at the very sight of his semi-nude mother, along with the realization that his virginity would soon be taken in a special way.

"You owe me for this," she said, hands on her hips.

He quickly nodded.

"Yes, anything."

"Promise you'll never tell anyone, right?"

He nodded even faster.

"No one will ever know."

Laura climbed on the bed and positioned herself over Ben's cock. She lowered herself, just over his erection. She reached down to direct his cock upward.

"Swear it?"

Ben's eyes widened.

"Our secret! I swear! Our secret!"

"Good boy."

She kept a firm grip on his cock, holding him upright. She lowered herself slowly, guiding herself onto his throbbing erection. His tip pressed against her swollen labia first, and then, inch by inch, it penetrated her.

All the while, Laura kept her eyes locked on Ben's face. He was in heaven over this. His eyes were wide and his tongue hung out like a puppy. It was all too good to be true, at least for him. He was finally losing his virginity to a beautiful older woman, who just happened to be his mother.

"Oh fuck," he groaned. "You pussy feels unbelievable."

She clenched herself.

"Watch your language young man."

"Yes mom," he mumbled.

Being called 'mom' while sitting on his cock was a unique taboo. An incredibly thrilling taboo. It lit a fire under her, and she became even more aroused than she already was. A button had been pushed in her brain which unleashed a sexual fetish she never knew she had.

With every thrust, every gyration of her hips, Ben's virginity fell further into the past. She loved fucking him. She loved giving her son this intense pleasure. Most of all, she loved seeing that crazed look on his face from his first sex session.

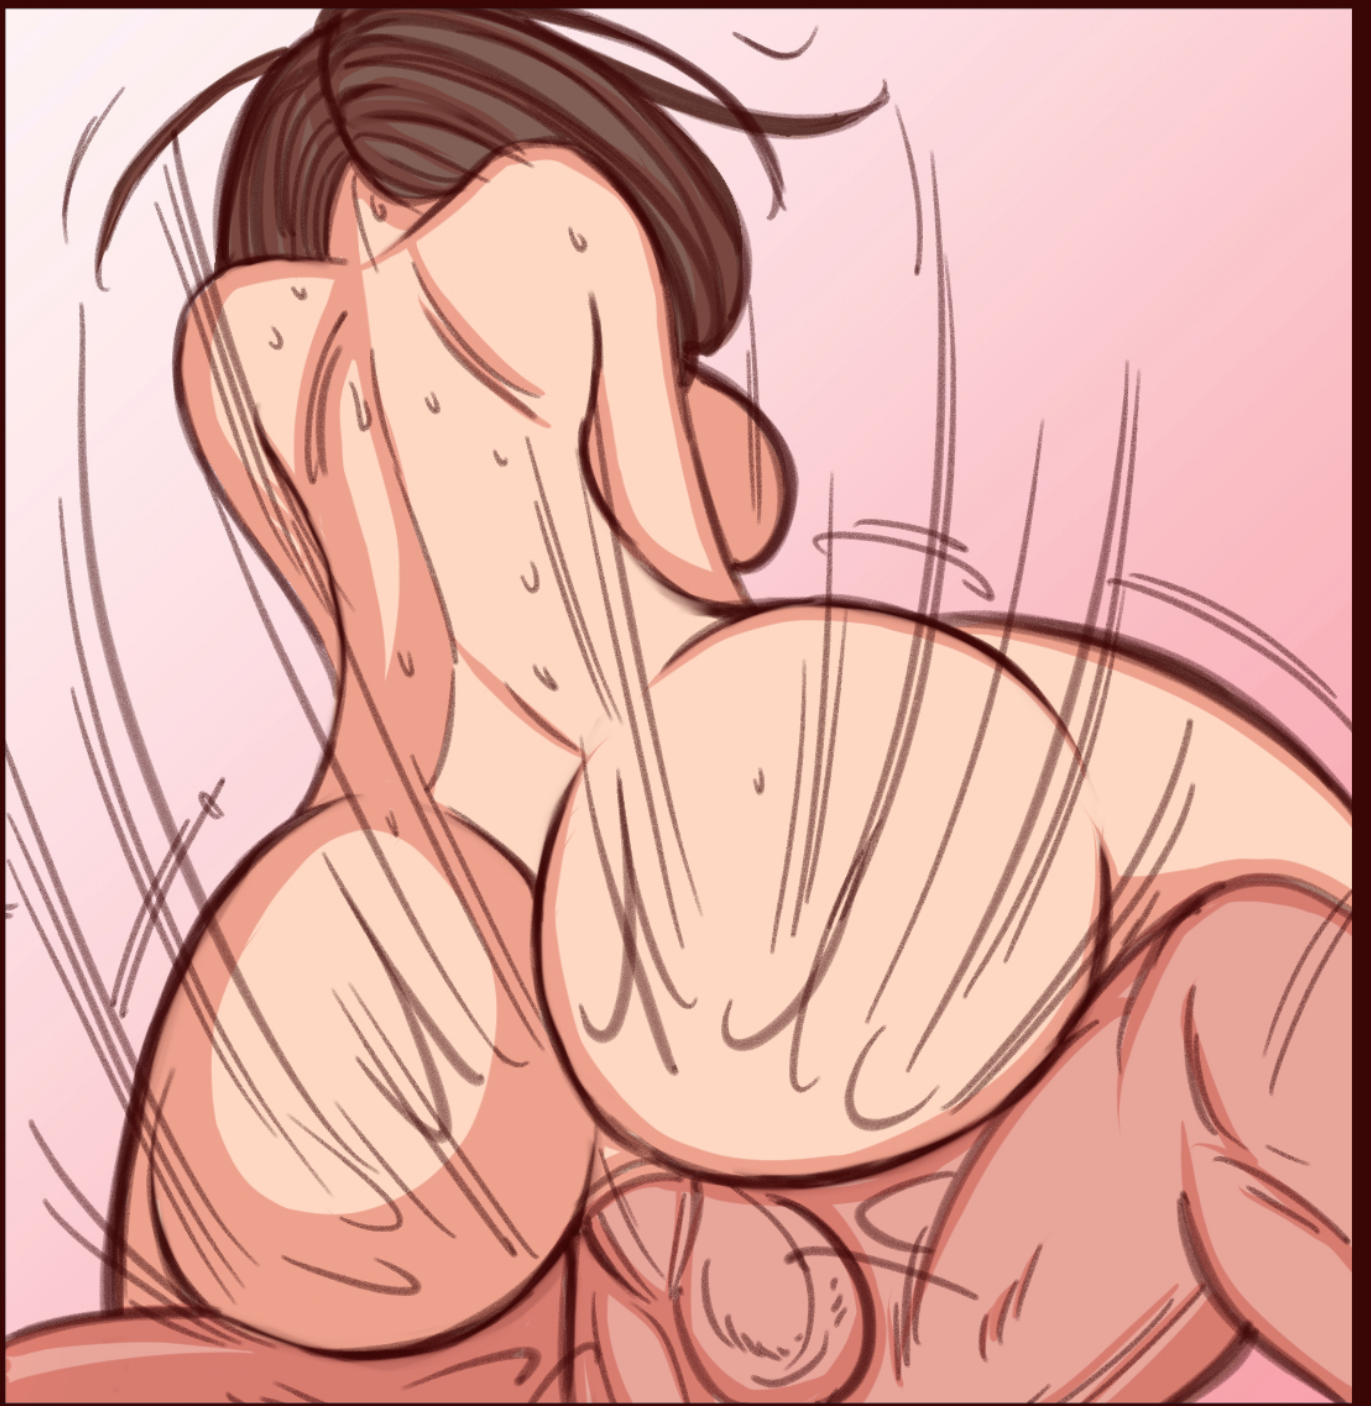

All the while, Laura never lost sight of things. She knew full well what this was about. As much as she enjoyed fucking him, she had to remember her motherly responsibilities as well.

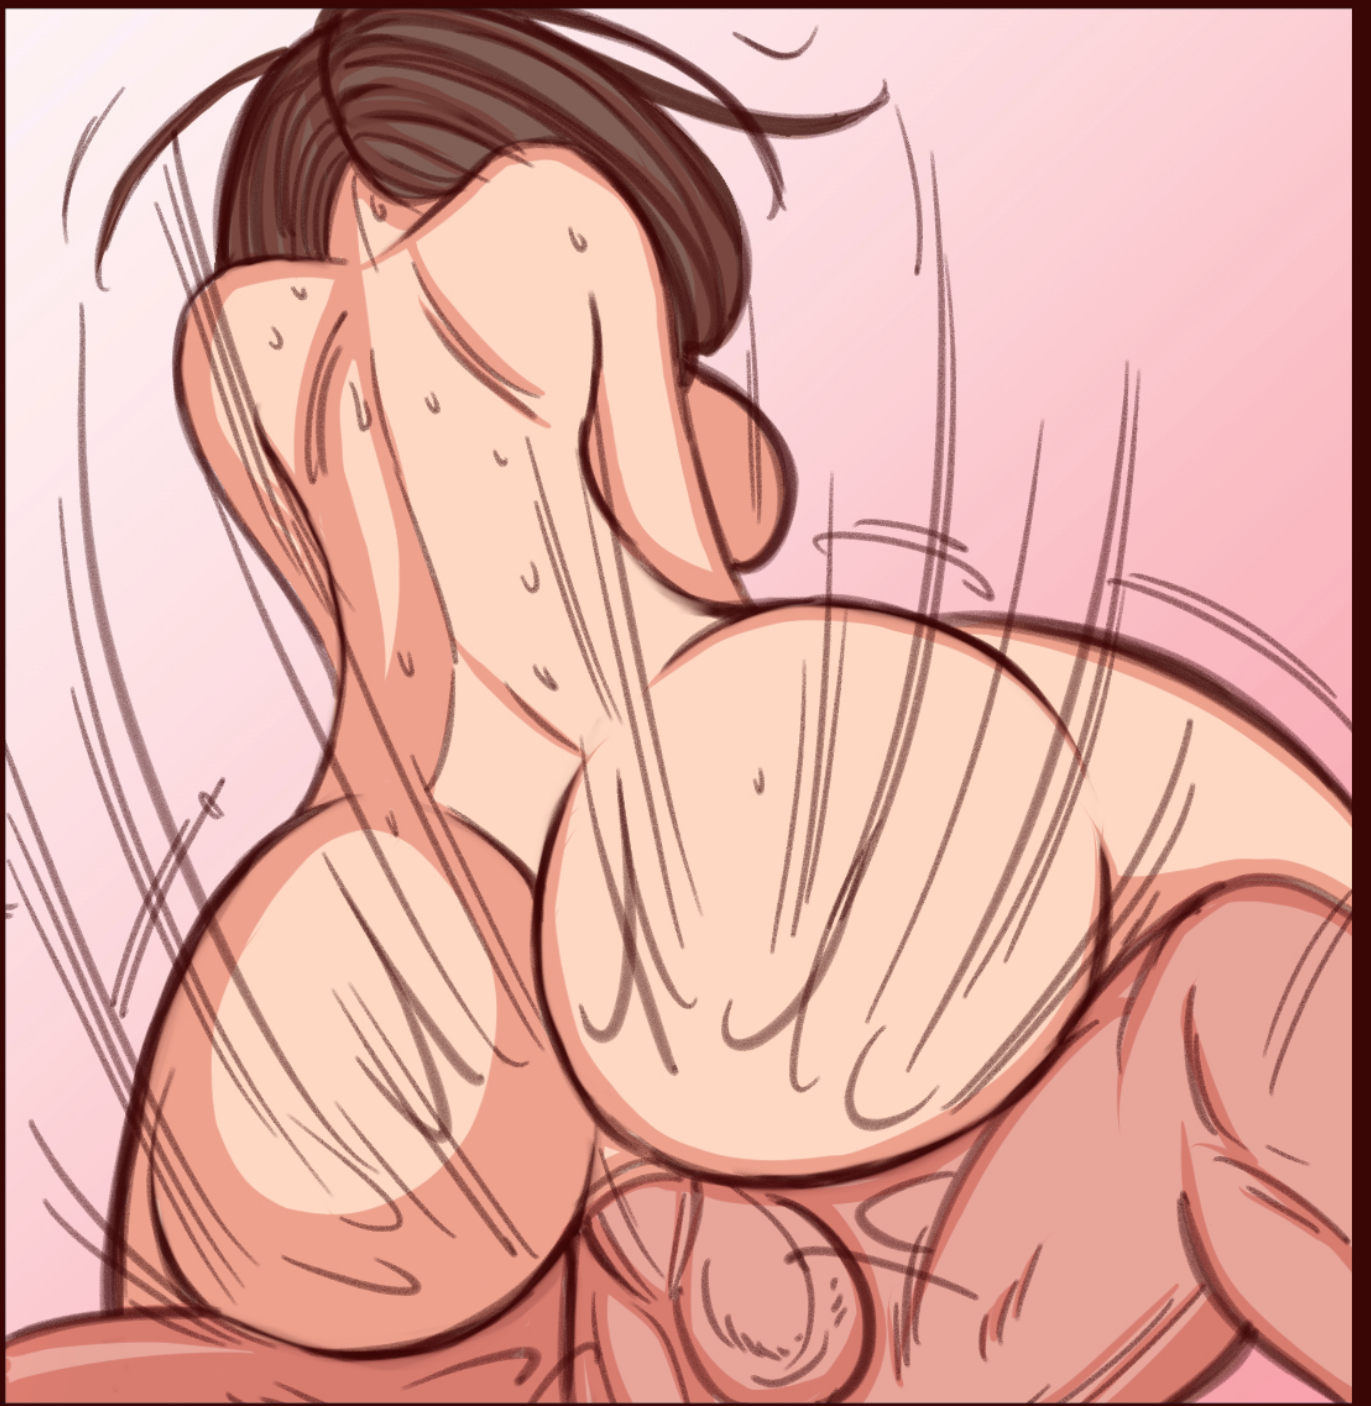

She reached behind and cupped his scrotum, which made him gasp from the touch.

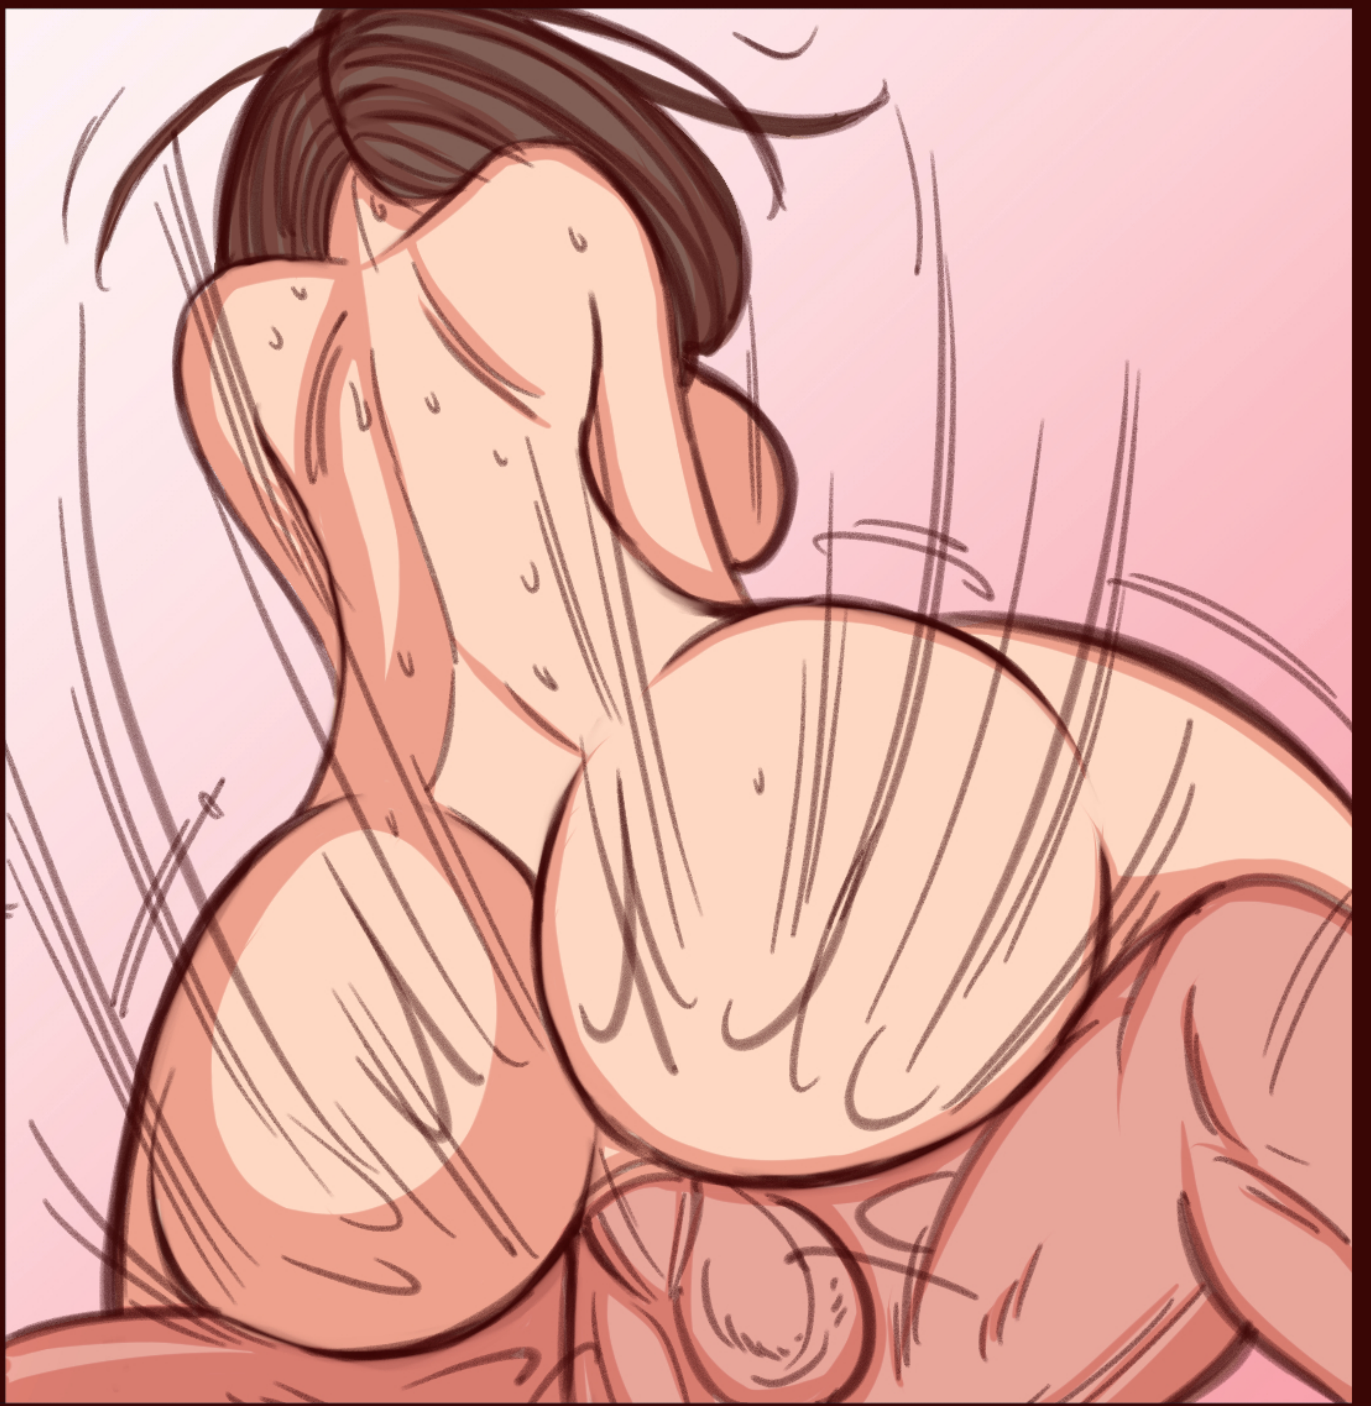

"Everything appears to be working fine," she breathed heavily, riding him. He groaned, "You got that right."
"For the moment, at least. We still need a proper test drive, so to speak."

Laura thrust her hips faster. It had been a while since she last had sex - far too long for a woman at her age. Feeling a young cock like this was a much welcomed form of sexual relief, even if that cock belonged to her son. Or maybe because that cock belonged to her son?

"Any aches?" she panted. "Pains... oh god... anything sensitive that hurts?" The bed started shaking as they fucked harder. Laura justified the intense fuck session by telling herself that this was all part of pushing Ben to the max, to make sure there was no nerve damage.

"No mom. Everything -- oh shit -- is fine. Except for... oh fuck!"

As Laura continued riding him, her eyes widened with concern. She should have stopped, but it felt far too good, and she could tell that Ben was still enjoying this as well. So she continued this medical exam by riding him even faster.

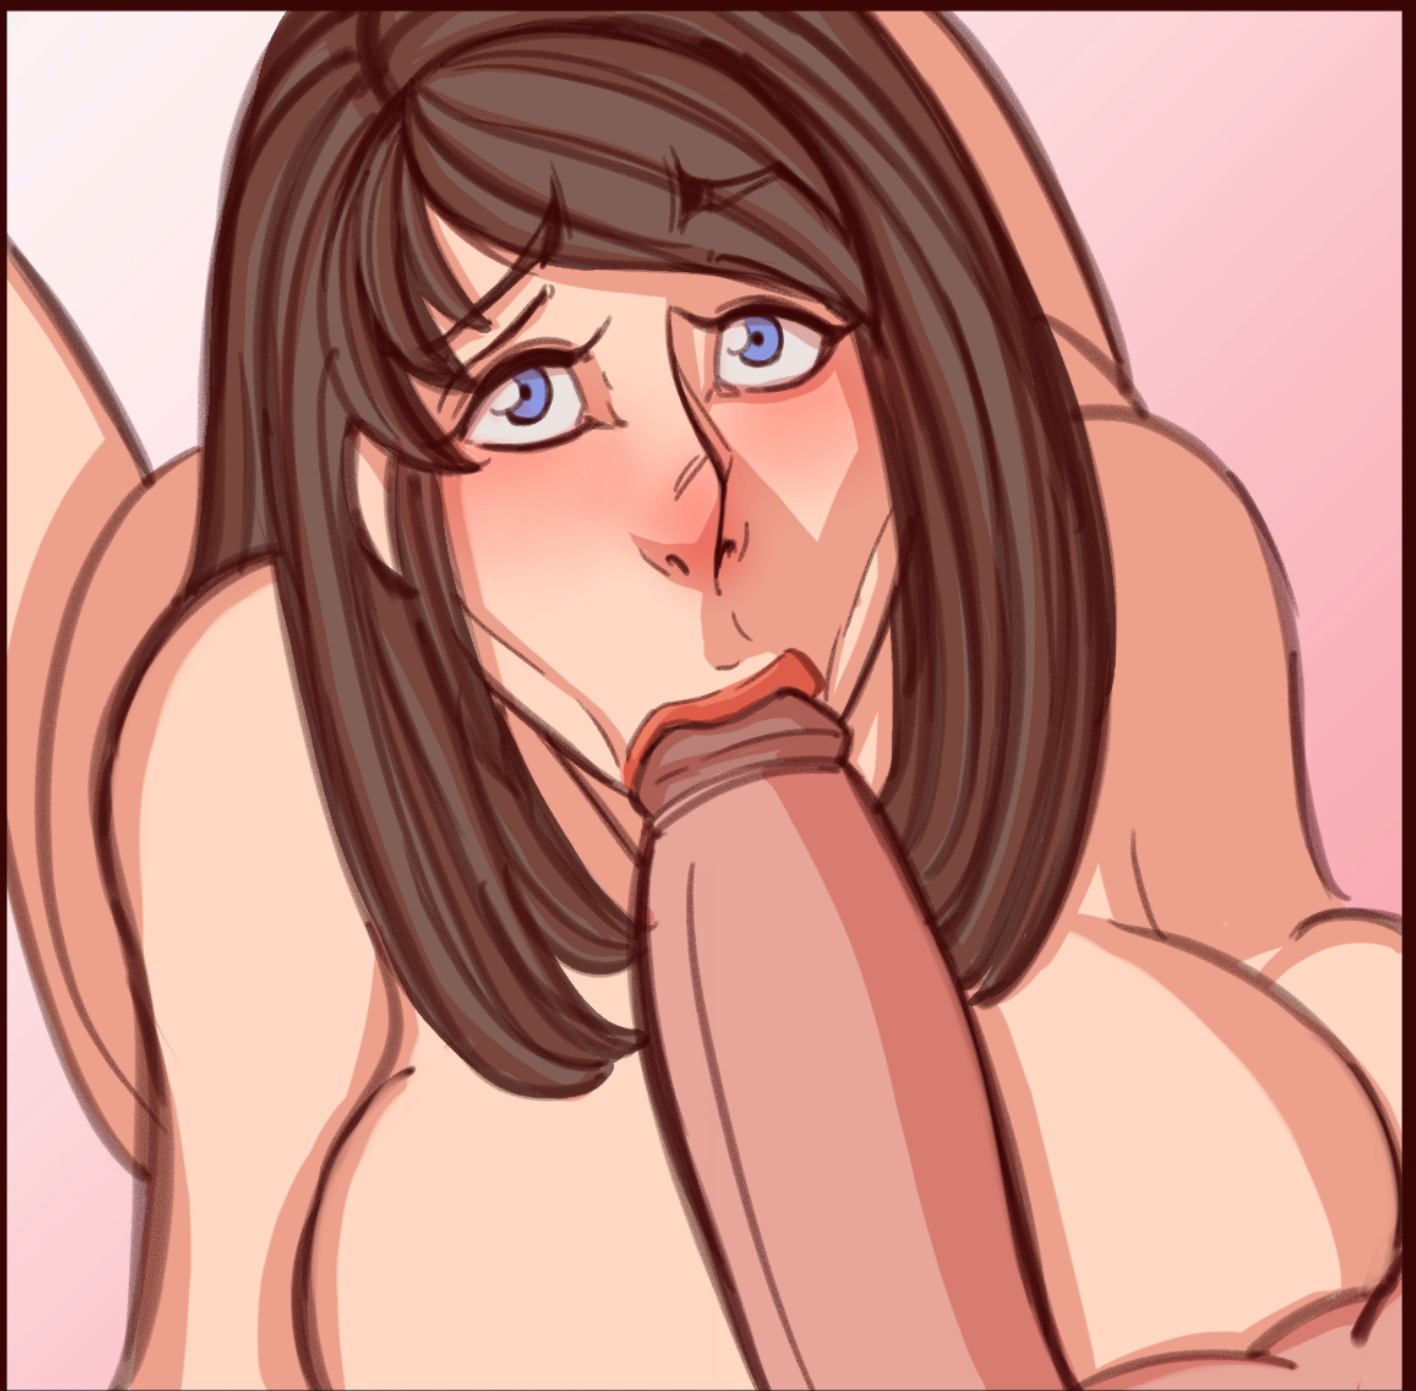

"What's wrong?" she asked with concern, pumping her hips.

"Fuck! I'm going to cum if you don't stop!"

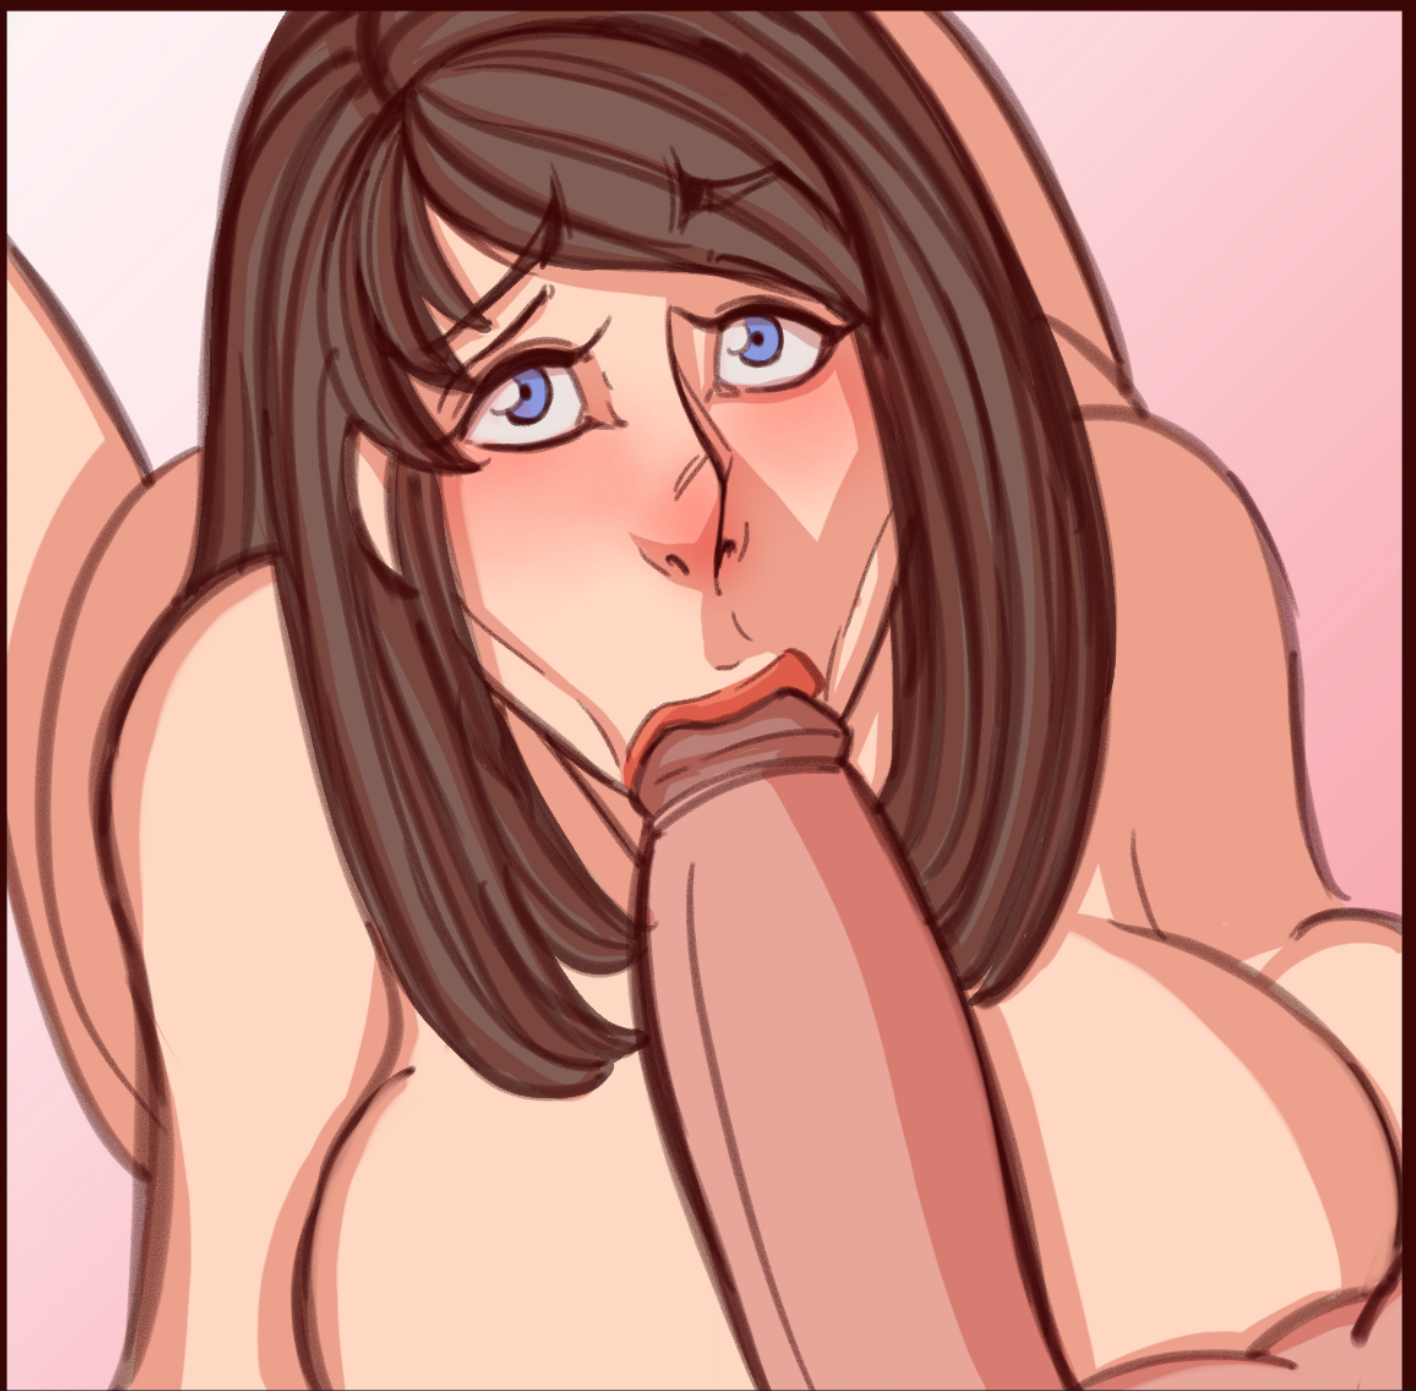

The thought of him cumming inside her was a shock. Sex was one thing. Flooding her pussy with cum was something else entirely.

Plus, she wouldn't be able to conduct a proper exam of his ejaculation with that cock buried deep in her pussy.

So she quickly hopped off his erection and got on her knees. She bent down to that wet, throbbing cock. Then she stuffed the cock in her mouth and sucked. Her hands stroked feverishly. Laura sucked that cock with everything she had.

Among the men she had slept with in her life, she was always known for having a mouth with powerful suction. She'd only been with a small group of men - less than ten - and each of them had showered her with praise over her cock sucking abilities.

She was a woman who was blessed with tight suction. Her mouth had a nice feminine softness to it too. Combined, it was a potent combination that could turn any man weak.

When she worked her hands even harder, that was it. Ben cried out loud.

"Oh fuck!!! Mom!!!"

Again, being called 'mom' during sex was powerful to her. It was really hot. She sucked harder, took him deeper, and stroked faster. She took his cock down to her throat while she sucked and stroked.

When the first shot of cum arrived, Laura moved her head back so that the cum would shoot directly onto her tongue. Per the doctor's orders, she didn't swallow just yet. She needed to taste it, she needed to feel it, and she certainly got a mouthful. It was warm and shot with a high pressure.

As she continued stroking him, she could hear the sounds of him whimpering. She continued this until she felt Ben's body relax, and the cum stopped shooting into her mouth.

After it was done, Laura sat upright and looked over to a nearby mirror. She stuck out her tongue and looked at her reflection to see her mouth full of cum. Not to be lewd. This wasn't a submissive gesture, but a way to check the color and consistency of her son's cum.

She even chewed on it to make sure it felt right.

This wasn't about perversions; it was about making sure his health was fine. It just so happened that she got a crazy adrenaline rush of pleasure out of it.

When she got the answers she wanted, and was satisfied with the results, Laura took a big gulp and swallowed the pool of cum in her mouth, taking it down her throat where it would be digested in her stomach.

"I think you get a clean bill of health," she smiled after licking her lips. "Your erection was strong, your skin felt smooth, and your cum was... well... delicious."

There was a naughty grin on her face as she said that, while licking her lips once more, which clearly delighted her son.

Ben breathed hard.

"Oh Jesus, mom. That was amazing."

She patted his thigh.

"Relax there. Just enjoy your first sex session. I'm going to call the doctor."

"Are you going to tell her about this?"

"Definitely."

"Why?"

Laura smiled,
"For your health, of course. And to see if she has any other medical recommendations we can use."

They both smiled at each other, and Laura bent down to swirl her tongue around the tip of Ben's softening cock. Then she walked over to the next room, bare-assed with a single breast still exposed.

Going on this trip was the best thing that's ever happened to them. They both could agree on that.

END.
