

THE DOOMED PLANNER

THE DOOMED PLANNER

106 COMMANDMENTS

"We say these things in their unholy names, amen."

1. {Fatherhood} Lead your family/cult with gratitude, enthusiasm, and selflessness. Eradicate your frustrations, impatience, and expectations. This is the key to true happiness in life beyond your coin pouch.
2. {Document, Don't Create} It is 666% easier to document what you're already doing than to try and create something entirely new from scratch.
3. {60 Minutes} When desired, limit yourself to only 60 minutes when working on a project. This is ample time to complete something simple or make substantial progress on what can be continued and/or finished tomorrow.
4. {Take Shortcuts} If I feel frustrated, overwhelmed, or stuck, it's because I'm not taking simple/easy path. Stop looking for the road less traveled, and stick to the road you {and everyone else} enjoys most. The easy one.
5. {The Mortal Realm} Do not allow yourself to become trapped in the Digital Realm. Return to the Mortal Realm by printing, painting, glueing, cutting, crumpling, and displaying everything you possibly can.
6. {Worship Chaos} Order is fleeting. Chaos is eternal. Revel in the turmoil, and you will be an unstoppable force.

106 DAILY RITUALS

"I shall obey."

1. {Patreon} Post at least 1 thing. It can be a new PDF, sermon, WIP update, BTS video, or a random image, it just has to be something. Your loyal cultists deserves it.
2. {Video} Film and post at least 1 sermon. If the church is to initiate new members, your voice must be heard.
3. {New Patrons} Initiate all new members of the church with portraits, Doomnicon invite, ritual sacrifice, and blood-soaked thanks name requests.
4. {Cult of Doom} Show your most zealous followers some appreciation, attention, and support. Fail to do so, and another cult will quickly earn their loyalty.
5. {Messages} Respond to all unread emails/DMs + new comments from the past 24 hours.
6. {Document} Post at least 1 thing to your story/community feeds to give insight into your personal life. Doing so will help build a deeper connection with your cultists.
