Afterword

Hello again, it's been a while. Little witch Academia came out just about 3 years ago but I'm still drawing LWA doujinshi. Maybe I'm just addicted to witches or something.

I wanted to do Akko x Constanze last time but I couldn't come up with a good situation and gave up. I'm glad I was able to come up with something this time. It's easy to come up with ideas if it's futanari, lol.

well, see you next time.
