TAIŌ NO NIOI

Wondrous Item, uncommon

This small ceramic jug is made with a rough gemstone of Taiyō inside. The pottery process utilizes a special kind of kiln that uses radiant energy instead of fire. That way, the jug and the cup absorb the magical properties of the Taiyō gem and become forever filled with radiant power. This jug can hold up to 4 cups of drink and produces 1d4 doses of a magical sake called Taiyō no nioi, or Sun Whiff, every day at dawn.

You can spend an action to pour a cup of sake and drink its content. After drinking, for 1 minute, you gain resistance to cold damage as your body fills with a cozy warm sensation. A reassuring feeling of power dominates your head, a sensation that no one can harm you. For the duration, you gain advantage in all tests to avoid being frightened.

In addition you feel your throat burning with radiant energy. The effect doesn't harm you in any way. For the duration, you can use your action to exhale this energy on a 15 ft. cone of Radiant Fire. Each creature in the area must make a DC13 Dexterity Saving Throw. A creature takes 2d6 radiant damage on a successful save and half as much damage on a successful one.

Once the effects of this drink end, you gain one level of exhaustion.
