LA BOSCAIOLA 2

... ESSE was still blindfolded when she was taken to a small hut hidden in the trees where she could sit on a small bench, still with her hands tied and finally she could even quench her thirst helped by the two ... but in reality it was fun for them to throw much of the water from their flask not on her thirsty mouth, but down her neck to her breast, cold water that made her nipples hard as never before. She contented herself with those few sips and the rest they were allowing, once the adrenaline of sexual intercourse passed, she realized that her legs ached and even her private parts were still on fire for the "warm attentions" of the two. By now it was a few hours later and it was clear that the darkness was making the atmosphere even more worrying, but fortunately the lighted fireplace of the shed gave her a little comfort, made her feel more reassured, but this moment of tranquility didn't last long ... ESSE was lifted with force by her arms and her wrists were tied to the high beam of the baracco. The position was very uncomfortable and her arms began to hurt, but immediately she was distracted by the hands that tore away what was left of her blouse and bra, her chest was now completely naked and her beautiful breasts were immediately covered by the attentions of the two lumberjacks who, taking a bundle of sticks, began to have fun tapping and rubbing the nipples of ESSE that began to swell and swell between the two satisfied laughs. At that moment she asked herself once more: - "Why?! Why is this situation arousing me again?" - Meanwhile the two brutes continued their game and her nipples were swollen and red, continually teased by the sticks and fingers that pinched and pulled firmly, bouncing her shapely breasts, but when she felt his tongue and the teeth that were biting the whole area of the areola she could not hold back a groan of pleasure, thinking: - "Oh no! I like all this ... it's absurd. " The two decided that it was time to satisfy their desires, they removed the handkerchief from ESSE's eyes and for an instant she stared at the brute's gaze, who began to caress her cheek, going down to her neck, down to her breast and slowly still more down to the more intimate parts ... a shiver went through ESSE and she decided to close her eyes, she didn't want to see how excited she was in that situation. The delicacy of that caress didn't last long, with a pair of scissors they cut the tight jeans first and then the panties.

- "... Naked, now I'm completely naked and completely in their hands ..." - she thought between a mixture of terror and frenzy. Her heart was beating fast, it seemed to burst and in that instant she saw the two undress and without delay the first began to penetrate her forcefully, ESSE noticed that the sensation of initial burning had turned into a pleasant pleasure ... Yes, she was enjoying it, she was enjoying savoring again this strange desire to be possessed in the most brutal way a woman can know. The second brute was now enjoying the scene from nearby and, since ESSE was still tied to the beam, he felt that his moment had also arrived, with his penis he decided to violate again the smaller and more precious hole; after an initial push which found however some resistance, a second more decisive push forcefully introduced the penis between the buttocks of ESSE that reacted with a cry of pain. By now she was stuck between the two, a wet and warm carnal sandwich where the vigor of the two crushed her to take her breath away.

This double penetration was making ESSE breathless, breathless and enjoying, as it had never happened with Mauro ... damn, Mauro, in an instant she thought of him and wondered what he would have thought if he had seen his companion panting and having pleasure while being violated and sodomized without mercy. The thought only lasted a second because the thrills of the orgasm were approaching. She was about to experience a strange, very strong orgasm, in an uncomfortable position that did not allow her to move and breathe, she was coming, her breathing increasingly labored, she had time to scream and whimper a strangled YESSS when she fainted, it had been too much for a woman what she felt. She woke up after a few seconds, she had been untied and was on her knees with her bum touching the ground, they had wet her face and she found that a very human gesture ... what a poor illusion it was, in no time at all one of the men pushed his penis with force into her mouth. ESSE had never taken such a large penis between her lips, and she found it pleasant to roll her tongue around the large man's glans. She could perceive the taste of his moods well since previously that same penis had violently crept inside her. The exciting situation lasted until the man decided to let her taste his sperm ... a long and hot spurt of semen flooded her mouth and, with difficulty, she managed to swallow the generous production. The second man got excited to watch the jerking scene and moaning came on ESSE's breast and face.

To her it remained only to clean herself with her hand savoring the taste of the sperm and with the feeble voice whispered an absurd and senseless:
"Thank you"!
