A HOUSE
IN THE RIFT

Lyniel

Like, yeah, I've gathered everything. Help me take these bags too. It would've been nice if everyone helped out, but I guess I'm the only responsible one here. But overall, it's kinda fun.

So, do people here just undress right away? Well, I didn't expect anything less from you. Since it's the norm, I guess I could. Hold my hat and don't look as I take off my shorts.

Lyniel

Well, why are you staring at me like that? I bet you've been watching me undress this whole time, haven't you? Of course, you can't take your eyes off my beautiful skin. And now, it's even more visible. Your bikinis are so tiny, it's utterly shameless. We could have just taken everything off right away. And stop nodding like that! Disgusting!

Better help me apply some oil. Otherwise, my beautiful fair skin will burn under this sun. Yes, even we trueborn can get sunburned. Here, take the oil spray and apply it on me. And don't even think about making jokes about "oiling me." Hm? Yes, I guess we should apply it under the bikini too. Uh, just let me...

Lyniel

Satisfied? I bet you've been dreaming of seeing me like this from the very beginning. I know you're such a disgusting man. Anyway, I only did it so you could spray me with oil. There's no one around here, right?

Well, what are you waiting for? Take the oil and start applying it. And try not to think any gross thoughts at least for now. Just apply the oil, rub it in, penetrate... Uh... No, nothing like that! So? We're all alone here, they all left a while ago. What are you waiting for?

Naomi

Ahoy, matey! Look, they've given me a board! And said I can ride the waves on it. I walked a few planks back in the day, but I never thought I could carve through the waves on one of them, hah! Tell ya what, it's damn great here. I've also spotted another one of your fine machines. Jet... Ski it was called, I think? I'll definitely give it a whirl later. They make such a funny water spray!

Oh, hold the board for me, will ya? I'll ditch this cloth and strip off these shorts. They're something alright, snug-fitting, and I like the cutouts, but they're just about to burst. Ya just don't have any proper clothes for our kind here!

Naomi

And the swimsuit, it's the biggest I could find, I tell ya. One wrong move and my tits will just pop out, hah! Well, never mind. Blair said she spotted a bar somewhere. I'll gulp down a spot of rum or two, and then I won't care about my tits at all!

Listen, do I really need a swimsuit on this thing? What's so wrong with going natural here? Let them gawk if they want. What are ya looking at me like that for? The breeze will give me a good airing, and the sun will warm me up!

Naomi

Aye, I'm going for it. The waves will be just right now, and the wind is rising. Heyo, maybe the wind isn't the only thing that's rising, huh? Haha! Just kidding, matey, what haven't ya seen? And what haven't ya touched, ha!

Hey, can ya ride on a board too? Lie down if ya need to. Cause I've got an idea. Riding the waves on a board is undoubtedly fun, but not spicy enough. How about you ride the board, and I ride you?

Wow, this place is absolutely amazing! We can play in the water, on the beach, and it's so much fun! And it's warm, sunny, and, um, exciting! I brought this swim ring so I can continue practicing swimming!

But you know, while I was here, a wave snuck up on me, and my dress got completely drenched. But, um, I can probably take it off. I should have taken it off earlier, but I got a bit carried away... Oh well, now I'll just loosen it up here and...

Caitlin

There! Yes, I really love this swimsuit too! It has these cute little stars on it! And the moon on my, um... On the bottom part. I think it's maybe a bit too revealing, which is why I didn't want to take off the dress right away, but...

No, no, it's not that I'm feeling embarrassed when it's you, it's just that, well... Either way, I would have had to take it off to go swimming. And it feels nice to have sun on my skin. I just worry that the ties might come undone. They are cute, but maybe I should...

Caitlin

Oh! I shouldn't have pulled on them... Oh, now this is a bit, um... Someone else might see me like that. Oh, I should put the swimsuit back on, but I can't do that with the swim ring in my hands. And, um, if you take it, I won't be able to cover myself if someone comes along.

Oh, but maybe we could go into the water? Then no one will probably notice, especially if you hold me. And you could bounce me up and down a bit, and It'll look like we're, um, just playing...

Yona

This place is fascinating. We've had cliffs everywhere on the coast, so we only really swam in rivers. And the sun here is scorching hot. And I've never seen trees like those. They are funny, but they provide plenty of shade.

I must say, I dressed a bit too warm. The white leather reflects light nicely, but the pants are starting to feel strange against my wet body.

Yona

I really like this swimsuit. All these straps, hmm... I feel like it suits me. And it holds everything nicely. Cait told me that your skin noticeably darkens in the sun, is that true? So, would wearing a swimsuit like this leave stripes all over your body? Hmm, interesting...

I'm thinking of going into the water. I enjoy swimming. Even after what happened back then. But before I go, there's something I wanted to ask you.

Yona

There, now I'm ready. Don't you have a tradition of burying each other so only the head sticks out? I wouldn't mind trying it, the sand is warm. I'll help you dig if you agree to bury me after. It sounds amusing to be buried up to my head in sand.

And of course, once I'm in there, I won't be able to resist anything you want to do to me. I'll have to submit.

Blair

Alright? Jump in! These cocktails of yours are pure gold, seriously. I've already downed three of them, and I'm mulling over getting a fourth. And this pool is just my size, ha! Maybe when I get through another two drinks, I'll go play the volleyball thing with all the tall hens just for fun.

Got all my clothes wet, right? Thought I could at least cover my arse a little, tried to keep it afloat above the water. But it didn't work out, apparently. Aye, I'll take it off now, it's all wet anyway.

Blair

I should learn how to swim, with all this water around here. Must be right fun. And I saw someone with this thing, a tube, a mask, and a big piece on their back. Are those your machines again? Oh, you can dive with them? And for a long time? That's neat, I need to get my hands on one.

Yeah, that's better, but I feel kind of strange in this thing. It's not really a proper piece of clothing, you ken? And yet it's nae like I'm naked. I'm used to either being in a fur coat or completely bare in a hot spring. You ken what...

Blair

There you go! I'll just enjoy myself like this. The water might nae be like the hot springs, but it's still fantastic. Can really relax here, you ken? And then I can climb out and dry off in the sun if I want.

So what if everything's on display? Whoever wanders in here only has themselves to blame. Our kin isnae very shy. If you're worried you could cover up my naked ass with yourself, how about that?

Azraesha

Oh, you have finally made your way to me, dear! It is just delightful here, with the sand, the water, the shade of the umbrella, and now the sight of you. I positively approve of your idea of a summer getaway. And I treated myself to an ice cream while I was waiting.

Those little bits of clothing over my swimsuit? Well, I just threw on whatever I could find on such short notice. Do you think it is too provocative? In my opinion, it is quite comfortable for summer. Not too hot. But you are right, I could just remain in my swimsuit.

Azraesha

The pose? Oh, I happened to glance at a painting depicting one of my relatives the other day. Perhaps I subconsciously imitated it, that is all. Yes, of course, completely subconsciously, why, dear? And my swimsuit is completely different.

But let me tell you ice cream is such a delightful invention. It is so pleasurable to take it into my mouth, to lick it. Even the feeling of an occasional cold droplet falling onto my body, it just adds to the experience. And one could always lick them off. Although it might not be very convenient to lick them off my swimsuit.

Azraesha

Yes, this is much better. Oh, do not worry, everyone is busy with their own things, we are completely alone here. And honestly, it is more comfortable this way. Do not even try to make a crude joke about the sand. And no, it will not get anywhere. I still possess some powers.

Oh, my ice cream is almost finished. And yet I am hungry, my lips still long for something. Perhaps you could help, my dear?
